Suburban Verdict Is Not Changed

Petworth Will Play in Post-season Series-First Game Saturday-Andrews Get Pennant. Ninth Protest Rejected. The season of the Commercial League is, therefore, declared closed.

The Commercial League in connection with this case and incidents of its presentation is directed to delegate a representative other than its present president to appear as its spokenam before the board during the remainder of the current year.

By C. W. SWAN. The board of arbitration held what is most likely its last meeting of the year last night in the law office of President Young and decisions were rendered in the Sunday School League. Suburban League, and Commercial League cases. The Departmental League controversy was aired yesterday afternoon in the American Security and Trust Company tour schedule Coach Stern, of the Ken-failed to find sufficient cause for the changing of its previous ruling in the ase, and Petworth is the winner of the suburban League pennant. This was the ulting of the board some time ago. The nuch heralded constitution failed to hold the clause, stating that the league mus composed of not less than four clubs

Ninth's Protest Not Allowed.

The protest of Manager Love, of Ninth significant the action of the officials of the Sunday School League failing to allow him to finish out the season and taking several games from his team by forfelt pennant in five innings by 8 to 4 Na-was not allowed. The reason for this action is given in the complete report of was never headed. Smithson outpitched was never headed. Smithson outspitched Umbaugh, striking out seven men. Callout the field. President Graf's action in awarding the pennant was sanctioned, and R. P. Andrews is the winner of the Commercial League pennant.

The post-season series will start of Esturday, and will continue every day after until September 2, when the winafter until September 2. when the winner must be declared. On August 19, every team in the series will play, making three games on this date. At the meeting of the commission Friday night, the managers of the pennantwinners will draw for numbers, and the schedule will be adopted.
Another important rule passed last night was the time set for the registering of protests regarding the eligibility of players. The rule is as follows:

August S. 1911.

Resolved, that the board of arbitration will not hereafter enter tala protests of games involving the eligibility of players in which the alleged violation occured more than ten days prior to this date. The following is the complete report

Commercial Lengue Case.

The beart, after examination of a number of witnesses on both sides, has satisfied Reeff that the Walferd team cannet, or will not be field for two games a full team. Walferd team cannet, or will not be players. As the post-seam series must start by Saturday, and the Willard beam, even to the Anderse, would be forced to win four games. It is apparent that it could not complete its schedule for the post-school players. The schedule for the post-school players are successful to the post-school players by the Walferd management, a third party that appeared as indirectly interested in the party in the nontressess, might have avoided the necessity of this present action.

IMPORTANT COMMISSION MEETING THURSDAY.

An Important meeting of the amateur commission has been called for Thursday night at Spaiding's gtore, in Fourteenth street. The final details of the post-season series will be ar-ranged, such as the drawing of numbers, the certification of the winning team, lists of players, and many minor details. The
